

Multnomah LGBT-Inclusive Literature Ideas

Title	Grade Levels	Units/Themes/Lessons
The Different Dragon	ALL	Themes: Family, Differences, Imagination Figurative language lessons Mentor text for sensory details or use of dialogue Read aloud Vocabulary Revision
And Tango Makes Three	ALL	Life Science: variations within species Second Step: empathy (at beginning of the year) Social Studies: community, family
Brothers of the Knight	4th-5th	Black History Month Writing: Mentor text Reading: Character study, cultural background/awareness, vocabulary development, fairy tale genre study
In Our Mothers' House	2nd-5th	Social Studies: family, celebration, traditions Second Step Habits of Mind Writing: Mentor text for memoir or personal narratives
Oliver Button Is a Sissy	ALL	Arts Author Study Second Step Habits of Mind

Multnomah LGBT-Inclusive Literature Ideas

Title	Grade Levels	Units/Themes/Lessons
The Sissy Duckling	ALL	Community Building at beginning of year Themes: Acceptance, Tolerance, Differences
The Family Book	ALL	Compare and contrast Antonyms and synonyms Social Issues in literature Treasures Theme: Family (Kindergarten)
William's Doll	ALL	Beginning of year setting up procedures and routines for play Gender roles Vocabulary
A Tale of Two Daddies	K-2nd	Read with And Tango Makes Three Families Unit Second Step Habits of Mind: Listening with understanding and empathy Writing: Pre-writing for small moment narratives, letter-writing