

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE AND SCHOOL LEADERSHIP

Building Safe and Inclusive Public Schools

Join us for a facilitated panel discussion featuring Los Angeles principals and community leaders.

Saturday January 26, 2013

9am to 11:30am

PANELISTS INCLUDE:

LEYDA GARCIA

Principal of the UCLA Community School

BEN GERTNER

Principal of CNMT at Roosevelt High School

CHUCK FLORES

Principal of NOW Academy

JOSE NAVARRO

Principal of Social Justice Humanitas Academy

MAURO BAUTISTA

Principal of Mendez Math and Science

MAISE CHIN

Executive Director of CADRE

ESTHEFANIE SOLANO

Youth Organizer of InnerCity Struggle

ALBERTO RETANA

Executive Vice President of the Community Coalition (Invited)

UCLA Professor JOHN ROGERS will facilitate the panel.

Robert F. Kennedy Complex Library,
701 South Catalina Street
Los Angeles, CA 90005

In recent years, many have called for replacing zero tolerance school discipline policies with more positive and proactive approaches. Some have argued for a restorative justice framework. This gathering brings together school and community leaders to discuss what it means for such a framework to guide practice in Los Angeles schools.

Please RSVP with Nataly Birch birch@gseis.ucla.edu who will share readings for the event and information on parking.

$15 for event and refreshments.

UCLA Principals' Center
LA/CPER