

PD Evaluation February 26, 2013

What is your Pathways team and who are your team members?	Please offer constructive comments about today's PD and suggestions for future PD meetings.	Observations Planned
History: Castillo Sanchez, Fey, Climaco	I found the handout prepared by Ms. Ruiz to be really useful as checklists to help us review/rethink our practice and how we are putting the best practices to work. Of particular usefulness was the DRTA sheet, which reminded us of the value of checking our predictions.
SCIENCE ~~~~~ Dives with Sharks Swims with Dolphins Padawan	THANK YOU! Violeta was extremely well-prepared, and was able to present information that is directly applicable to the classroom. This is one of the best-organized and most useful trainings I've had on the topic.
Spanish, Ms. Corral Mr. Rodriguez	Great PD and very structured.
Jenn Ocampo Mike Herrmann Robert Ly	It was a great PD! Lots of information and strategies. It was good to know that most teachers are using similar strategies to help our ELL students.
English: Andy, Marita, Scott, Sandi	We should have more PDs like this. Build in follow up PDs to connect this content. Discussion about which strategies each content team relies on most.
