

TOP SECRET

SCREENWRITER'S EYES ONLY

CONGRATULATIONS.

You have been selected to be a part of the Young Storytellers Program, which is only the coolest program on Earth. You were chosen because you're one of the coolest kids, so it makes sense that you'd be part of the coolest program.

Please fill out the information below before you get started- we really want to know who you are.

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____ Boy/Girl (circle one)

School: _____ Grade: _____ Date: _____

Ethnicity(circle one):

White/Caucasion

Black/African American

Latino/Hispanic

Asian

Other (Bi-Racial)

Now, let's start:

1. Another word for the antagonist in a story is:

- a) Setting
- b) Hero
- c) Bad guy
- d) Theme

2. WHERE a story takes place is called the:

- e) Setting
- f) Goal
- g) Protagonist
- h) Conflict

3. The goal in a story is:

- a) The conflict
- b) What is learned
- c) The winning score

- d) What the main character wants more than anything
4. Each one of these goes in the beginning of a story EXCEPT:
- a) Setting
 - b) Goal
 - c) Lesson
 - d) Protagonist
5. The hero or main character in a story is called the:
- a) Antagonist
 - b) Winner
 - c) Protagonist
 - d) Parenthetical
6. You can find this element of the story in the end:
- a) The lesson
 - b) The obstacle
 - c) The struggle
 - d) The goal
7. Another word for the conflict in a story is:
- a) objective
 - b) problem
 - c) courage
 - d) resolution
8. When the characters in a story speak, it's called:
- a) Setting
 - b) Dialogue
 - c) Prologue
 - d) Climax
9. "A bird wanted to fly. So one day, he did." This wouldn't make a good screenplay yet because:
- a) Birds don't make good protagonists.
 - b) There are no obstacles in the story.
 - c) The bird needs a goal.
 - d) The story ends happily.
10. What do you use a parenthetical for?
- a) To catch a wild zebra
 - b) To tell an actor how to say a line, or let them know an emotion
 - c) To summarize your story
 - d) To describe your setting

Please answer the following statements as honestly as you can.

1. I believe that what I have to say is important.
 - a) Always
 - b) Sometimes
 - c) Never

2. I enjoy writing.
 - a) Always
 - b) Sometimes
 - c) Never

3. I consider myself a successful creative person.
 - a) Always
 - b) Sometimes
 - c) Never